330 Park is "Dog Day Afternoon" as Hitchcock would have filmed it. Sacramento Bee "A superb novel of suspense, and has been compared to THE TOWERING INFERNO. It is better than INFERNO; more literate, appealing more to the mind than the emotions." Teresa Bloomingdale, Metro Magazine "Well done, carefully plotted, without one extraneous word." Barbara Bannon, Publisher's Weekly "May it only remain fiction." Suzanne of "The Toppers" (WHBI-FM) Cohen has written an epic masterpiece of tension, excitement and suspense? by far the most suspenseful story I've come across in months." Jacksonville Journal "A modern classic of shattering suspense and adventure." Burlington (VT) Free Press "A nightmare of epic proportions? the writing is crisp; the action dramatic. The dialogue is brutally realistic." Murfreesboro Daily News Journal "Hard to put down once started?" The Spectator (Canada) "If you like thrillers, this is your book." Lehigh Valley Labor Herald
